Roger Reynolds, Team Lead & Wealth Manager

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

Roger Reynolds is a Wealth Manager. Roger specializes in providing comprehensive wealth management services and diversified investment management strategies to affluent individuals and families. Roger's role with Coldstream also involves directing the activities of the Disabled Advisory Services (DAS) group. The DAS group focuses on customized financial planning, personalized attention, adaptive-oriented solutions, and serving as an advocate for those with a disability.

Prior to helping co-found Coldstream, he was a Principal and Portfolio Manager with Seafirst Investment Counselors in Seattle, WA. He began his investment career in 1989 at Security Pacific Bank (acquired by Bank of America) in Los Angeles, where he was responsible for cash management and fixed income portfolios for corporate and private clients. Prior to joining Security Pacific Bank, he served as a property tax analyst and consultant to corporate clients of a Los Angeles-based CPA firm. At Seafirst Investment Counselors, Roger was responsible for the investment management of corporate, public, and union retirement portfolios, and select high net worth private clients. In addition to his equity research activities, he specialized in the management of short duration taxable and tax-exempt fixed income portfolios.

Since 1991, Roger has been involved with the Outdoors For All Foundation, a year-round adaptive recreation program for people with disabilities in Washington, and currently serves as President of the Board of Directors. He is also a Past President of Young Entrepreneurs and a founding member of Northwest Next, an alumni organization for the Puget Sound Business Journal's "40 under 40" honorees. He is currently a member of the Seattle YPO/WPO chapter.

Roger was born in 1963. After serving in the U.S. Navy in both an active and reserve status, he earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Finance, with an emphasis in Investments, from California State University, Long Beach, in 1989.
