James Walsh CFA®, Portfolio Manager

Item 2 - Educational Background and Business Experience

James Walsh is a Portfolio Manager for clients of the Kevin Fitzwilson relationship team. James also manages for the firm the Coldstream Dividend Growth separate account strategies and a Dividend Growth Small & Mid Cap mutual fund. Prior to joining Coldstream he was an analyst with the Private Client Services group at City National Bank in Beverly Hills, CA. James was responsible for creating asset allocation strategies and investment policy guidelines for high net worth individuals and families. At City National Bank James designed unique spreadsheet-based models to project investment and liability scenarios for clients and prospects.

James began his investment management career in 1998 when he joined Worldwide Investments Corp. a hedge fund in La Jolla, as an equity trader. James later went to work for LPL Financial in a portfolio accounting capacity. In this role he trained new employees on IRS regulations while managing the daily reconciliation of cost basis information for over 100,000 advisory accounts.

James was born in 1977 and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts, Political Science from California State University, San Marcos in 2000. James earned his Master of Business Administration from the University of California, Irvine in 2005, with an emphasis in Finance.

In addition to his degrees James earned the Chartered Financial Analyst designation in 2009 and is an active member of the CFA Society of Seattle. The CFA® designation is issued by the CFA Institute and candidates must meet one of the following requirements: 1) Undergraduate degree and 4 years of professional experience involving investment decision-making, or 2) 4 years qualified work experience (full time, but not necessarily investment related). It requires completion of a self-study program (at least 250 hours of study for each of the 3 levels) and 3 course exams. The three exams - Level I, Level II, and Level III - must be passed sequentially as one of the requirements for earning a CFA charter.

Item 3 - Disciplinary Information

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. No information is applicable to this Item.

Item 4 - Other Business Activities

James is licensed as a broker-dealer representative for Coldstream Securities, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Coldstream Holdings, Inc., also the parent company of Coldstream Capital Management, Inc. He can receive commissions or bonuses or other compensation based on the sale of securities or other investment products through Coldstream Securities, Inc. other than his regular Coldstream salary and bonus.

Item 5 - Additional Compensation

As a registered representative of Coldstream Securities, Inc., James can recommend securities, variable annuities, or other products, and receive commissions and other compensation if products are purchased through any firms with which James is affiliated. Thus, a potential conflict of interest can exist between the interests of James and those of the advisory clients. However, clients are under no obligation to act upon any recommendations of James or affect any transactions through him if they decide to follow the recommendations. As manager of the Coldstream Dividend Growth strategy products, James receives additional compensation for client investment in these strategies. This activity gives an incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. Clients are not required to invest in these strategies and can opt to limit or exclude investment in the strategies in their portfolios.

Item 6 - Supervision

James Walsh is directly supervised by his Team Lead, Kevin Fitzwilson. Periodic portfolio investment reviews will be conducted by the Chief Investment Officer, Howard Coleman and may also include one or more investment/research analysts. Client portfolio reviews include evaluating the alignment of each client's investments with their stated objectives, risk tolerances and restrictions, as well as alignment with firm investment strategies. Exceptions will be reviewed with each Client Relationship Team for correction and/or realignment if warranted.
